

Thanks For Being Awesome!

Shortly after the holidays, Karl's physician called him to re-check his blood sugar. Just the day before, Karl had visited an optometrist, perplexed at to why his eyes were going "a little bit funny." Increasingly, his sight was blurry and he was unable to read. The optometrist prescribed new reading glasses. Your donation enables us to work so that other men can face this issue and live their best life.
